

Wine and food in Romania

Romania was blessed with beautiful sunny hills and a fertile land perfect for vine growth. Even if France or Italy has the supremacy when it comes to wine tasting, we would like to present another part of this culture: Romania wine and food tasting. We propose two amazing tours and we are sure that your luggage will have at least 2 kg more than on arrival (of course, because of the wine bottles). 😊

Duration: 4 nights/ 5 days

Highlights:

Wine road, Bucharest, Iasi

Overview:

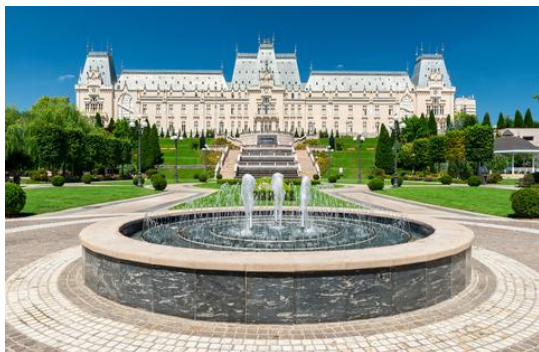

- 4 nights accommodations in a cozy guesthouses
- Traditional meals in every location
- Wine tasting, noble spirit, delighting the senses

Day 1: Bucharest - Focsani - Deleni

Welcome to Romania! After meeting with your guide on, we invite you to take your comfortable seats on the bus that will lead you into a noble adventure. Let's meet the stories of Romanian wine history. No story without tasting! That is the trip's rule. Lunch will be served in Focsani. Accommodation and dinner in a superb manor near Iasi.

Day 2: Deleni - Cotnari - Iasi - Deleni

Good morning, noblemen! Eat your noble breakfast, but eat well because this is the first day of wine tasting. First stop: Cotnari. This vineyard hides at least three authentic vine varieties - Grasa de Cotnari (this kind of wine has not been acclimatized in any vineyard in the world), Francusa or Feteasca Alba. Of course, all accompanied by traditional Romanian dishes. After that, a short walking tour in Iasi, to discover a quiet town where people's joy will revive you. Prepare for a traditional dinner in a cozy, historical restaurant. Your guide will surely tell the story of this wonderful place. From the restaurant's pantry you may buy traditional goodies (jam, zacusca, homemade cheese and sausage) and you won't regret it. Accommodation also in the superb manor.
